Description

Title: James Lloyd Comic Book Collection.

Dates: (1994-2008)

Extent: 5 cm.

Biography: James Lloyd is a comic book and animation artist who was born in Britain ca. 1976 and moved with his parents to the interior of British Columbia at the age of two. He completed one year of art school in the Okanagan before moving to Vancouver. His career in comics began with some self published small press comics which lead to work in animation in the mid 1990s. Since 2000 Lloyd has worked for Matt Groening's company, Bongo Comics where he has contributed to Futurama Comics and Simpson's Comics and Stories. Lloyd is a prominent figure in Vancouver's vibrant independent comic community. Many of his comics are printed in a "mini-comic" format which employs do-it-yourself principles to produce Xeroxed comic books with small print-runs. Often semi-autobiographical, his work examines many aspects of life and politics in Vancouver.

Custodial History: All comics acquired from the author in November of 2008.

Scope and Content: This collection contains self published "mini-comics" that date from the mid 1990's and a standard sized comic book that Lloyd contributed to. RBSC also expects to acquire Lloyd's future comic books.

2. Other Stuff 1-4 (1993-1998, 2008)
